This presentation will cover...

- Masks from Bob Ibold’s online collection of “Masks from around the world.”
- The following are examples of masks from many different Latin American countries, including Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Colombia, Cuba, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Guatemala, Mexico, Nicaragua, Panama, Peru, Puerto Rico, Paraguay, and Venezuela.
Argentina

- Wichí People
- Northern Argentina
- 9 inches, painted wood
Bolivia

• Devil Mask

• Carnival, Oruro, Bolivia

• 9.5 inches, painted plastered cloth
Bolivia

- Condor Mask
- Carnival, Oruro, Bolivia
- 15.5 inches, painted metal
Brazil

- Brazilian Parrot mask
- Carnival, Brazil
- 6 inches, rigid papier mâché, paint
Colombia

• Character mask
• Colombia
• 9 inches, painted wood
Cuba

- Cuban Devil mask
- Cuba.
- 18 inches wide from tip to tip of horns, painted paper-mâché.
Dominican Republic

- Lechone mask.
- Santiago, Dominican Republic.
- 24 inches, painted paper mâché.
Ecuador

• Ecuadorian Dog mask.

• Highland Quichua people, Pinchincha, Ecuador

• 15 inches deep, painted wood.
Ecuador

- Diablo Umo mask
- Quechua people, Ecuador
- 26 inches, colored fabrics
Ecuador

- Character mask
- Quechua people, Cotopoxi, Ecuador
- 16 inches, painted wood
Guatemala

• Tecun Uman Mask
• Guatemala
• 8.5 inches, painted wood, glass
Guatemala

- Xacalcoje Mask
- Totonicapán, Guatemala
- 8.5 inches, wood
Guatemala

• Torito dance, Guatemala
• 8.5 inches, painted wood
Guatemala

- San Cristobal
- Totonicapan, Guatemala

- 8.5 inches, painted wood
Mexico

• Rooster mask.

• Carpinteros, Hidalgo, Mexico.

• 11.5 inches long, painted wood.
Mexico

- Xantolo mask for Día de los Muertos
- 8 inches, wood
Mexico

• Mexican Macho Mula mask

• Costa Chica, Guerrero

• 8.5 inches, painted leather
Mexico

• Mexican Chapayeka Mask

• Yaqui people, Sonora, Mexico

• 14 inches, goatskin helmet, painted wood face, cardboard crown, horse hair beard
Nicaragua

- Tourist mask.
- 7 inches, carved gourd.
Panama

- Animal mask
- Wounaan- Embera culture, Darien Province.
- 10 inches, woven palm.
Peru

- Mummy bundle mask
- Chancay culture, Pre-Columbian Peru
- 9 inches, painted wood
Paraguay

- Rabbit mask
- Chiriguanos Indians, Paraguay
- 13 inches, wood
Venezuela

• Diablo mask
• Festival of Corpus Christi, Venezuela
• 22 inches wide, painted papier mâché
Acknowledgment

- Bob Ibold is the curator and owner behind the website “Masks from around the world,” a rich digital collection of masks representing cultures of nearly every continent. The masks presented here are only a sliver of the images available online.

- For more information about this collection, visit www.masksoftheworld.com

- Please note that all images (with the exception of the maps) and their descriptions presented in this slide show are reproduced with Ibold’s permission. Please contact him directly if you intend to re-use or redistribute this content.